D. SCOPE

This policy applies to the following types of employees of the University and their supervisors: administrative and professional faculty, teaching and research faculty, classified non-wage staff. This policy does not apply to adjunct faculty, non-instructional part-time faculty, or student employees.

E. POLICY STATEMENT

This policy provides specific procedures to be followed to ensure the timely processing of separations as follows:

- ensure accurate computation of compensation and disbursement;
- facilitate final pay actions;
- protect and account for University property; and
- provide faculty and staff with an opportunity to exercise appropriate benefit options.

F. PROCEDURES

University hiring supervisors are responsible for immediately notifying the Department of Human Resources concerning the separation of faculty and staff. Notification to the Department of Human Resources must occur no later than one workday upon the hiring supervisor's receipt of this information.

An employee is responsible for providing advance notice and written notification of his/her intent to resign to his/her hiring supervisor as soon as the decision has been made to separate from University employment. The written notification should provide an explanation for the separation and must state the effective date of separation, which is the last day the employee will work.

Reasonable advance notice of separation for classified employees is at least two weeks or longer for professional level positions. As contractual employees, faculty members should make every effort to give the administration adequate time to find a replacement when they desire to leave Old Dominion University.

Upon being notified of an employee's intention to separate, the hiring supervisor shall request the written separation letter. On the bottom of the document, the hiring supervisor should note the date the separation letter was received, sign his/her name acknowledging receipt, and submit the document to the Department of Human Resources immediately. If an employee wishes to rescind the separation notice, the employee shall send a written request to withdraw the separation notification to the hiring supervisor and the Department of Human Resources. The hiring supervisor shall forward the request to withdraw to the hiring supervisor's vice president. The vice president shall decide whether to approve the request to withdraw. Notice of separation. The vice president shall notify the employee, hiring supervisor, and the Department of Human Resources if the withdrawal request is approved or denied.

The Department of Human Resources will provide the hiring supervisor with an email message confirming receipt of the separation notice within five (5) business days. The Department of Human Resources will enter the termination of the job record in Banner on or before the separation date or immediately upon receipt if the separation date is on or prior to receipt of notification of employee's separation by the supervisor. This will set off the Employee Separation Workflow which terminates system access within twenty-four hours of the separation date.

The hiring supervisor will receive a checklist to ensure that the hiring supervisor's responsibilities for the separation process are communicated and completed in Banner Workflow on or before the separation date and no later than two business days after the separation date.

Hiring supervisors are responsible for the following checklist actions:

- certifying that all leave activity has been submitted via WTE to the Payroll Office;
- collecting University property;
- directing the return of keys to the Department of Facilities Management.

The Payroll Office is responsible for processing final salary payments, processing final leave payments, terminating direct deposits, and terminating employee records in the Banner Administrative Information System.

G. RECORDS RETENTION

Applicable records must be retained and then destroyed in accordance with the Commonwealth's Records Retention Schedules
